Who We Are

The Conflict Center is celebrating 30 years of programming, teaching effective conflict resolution and social-emotional skill building across the Denver area. We promote nonviolent actions that bring more peace to relationships and the world!

Upcoming Spring/Summer 2018

Peaceful Parenting Workshops

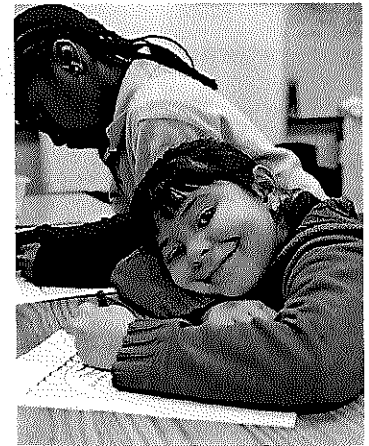

Upcoming: May 3, 5:30 - 7:30

Our parenting workshops are designed for busy parents to build stronger connections with their children. Join us for our two-hour workshops throughout May, where we'll offer a variety of tools for your family.

Restorative Practices Program

Upcoming: April 25, 9:00 - 4:00

Be a part of the shift from punitive to restorative practices. Join us for our upcoming one-day training on building and sustaining a more restorative school culture. Trainings run monthly.

Addressing Anger & Emotions Effectively

Upcoming: May 2, 5:30 - 7:30

Participants will discover how conflict can be a force for positive change. Learn to communicate the core emotions at the root of anger and work toward resolving the problem. At the core of this class is the value of building relationships through the conflict process. Classes run monthly.
